LISTENING TO THE NIGHT

As I write, the year ending has been a significantly blessed one for me. I got engaged, married, and shortly thereafter we bought our first home together. It occurs to me that 2011 will have to work hard to top these milestones.

Yet with the light there is always darkness. Within the last weeks of the year, grief has blanketed my life in unexpected ways; my grandmother died, two relatives underwent surgery, and a close friend's father died. To be reminded of joy during these times feels like trying to chisel away the morning fog.

During these times of sorrow I read the Christmas stories, yearning to rekindle the joy of the earlier part of the year. I wanted a great miracle like Noah and the Ark or Moses parting the Red Sea. Yet the Christmas story is not a very loud miracle story; it is a story about the birth of one baby in a stable. Not quite the grand gesture that I was hoping God would send to pound out my sadness.

There is a hum next to my keyboard; the soft steady hum of a purring cat who has nudged his way underneath my arm, his head resting on my hand. With this gesture I am reminded that great acts of joy can be found in the smallest packages; that the tiny cry of life from a newborn baby Jesus can trigger generations of change.

"Listen" I hear God telling me. "Listen for the cry of joy in the night." To be awake in the stillness of the dark and hear sounds that may be missed when the world is awake, to pay attention to the smallest signs even when we may feel as though we are stumbling under a mountain of grief. "Come" God says, "come and walk with me awhile in the fog and I will slowly lift the curtain with the morning light. Together we stand and hear the joy of a newborn day."

This Christmas season I invite all of us to take a moment amidst the bustle to be with God. Whether it is on a morning walk, cooking a meal, sitting amongst family and friends, or standing in line at the store. Listen for the joy that is found in the clanging of cookie trays against oven racks, the laughter at an old joke, or the carols that play on the distant speakers. Listen for the cry of one child. Experience again the miracle that is found with the first cry of life.

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

January 2011

Eden UCC has been an Open and Affirming Church since 1995. We believe that all people are children of God; that persons of all ages, races, and sexual orientations are part of our increasingly diverse culture; and we welcome all persons into the full life and ministry of this church.

Welcome to Eden!

Eden is a diverse and growing church. At Eden, people of all ages and backgrounds join together to grow spiritually, do good in the world, and develop healing and nurturing relationships.

At our church, you will not be told what to believe. We feel that the way we treat one another is more important than holding uniform beliefs. And, while the Bible is important to our faith, it is not the last word. We believe that God is Still Speaking through science, nature, personal experience, other faith traditions and more.

On Sunday mornings, our church services and kids' programs are open, friendly and innovative. Every week at Eden, you'll find all kinds of activities—retreats, yoga classes, service projects, music programs, labyrinth walks, study groups—to nurture mind, body, and spirit.

At Eden, we are on a journey together to understand and live God's truth for our lives. Come and join us on the journey. Check out our website. Give us a call. Come by and see us. We look forward to welcoming you!

Santa's Helpers at FESCO Luncheon

FESCO Thanks Eden Church

The Annual FESCO Luncheon last week was a huge success, welcoming new and old supporters to a delicious feast, and to learn about FESCO's services. Over $1100 was raised to support FESCO programs! FESCO folks are very grateful to Eden UCC for holding this yearly event, and for the marvelous "Happy Birthday, Jesus" Christmas contribution to our FESCO families. About 20 gift cards were collected, totaling $600, and the presents filled a box 4 feet by 4 feet by 3 feet. What a generous outpouring from Eden Church!

Cookies for Christmas Eve

Cookie donations are now being accepted in the Oliver Hall kitchen on Sunday mornings and in the church office during the week for Eden's annual Christmas Eve celebration. Please spread a little holiday cheer by sharing the chocolate, sprinkled, oatmeal, yummy goodness with all! And in keeping with Eden tradition, all are welcome to stay and enjoy the Christmas spirit following the Dec. 24, 7 p.m., service.

Year-End Giving

In keeping with generally accepted accounting practices, all financial contributions received by the Eden Church office between Jan. 1 and Dec. 30, 2010, will be reflected in contributors' giving statements as received during the 2010 tax year. If you have questions about whether your pledge payments are current, or if you have questions about making an additional year-end gift, please contact Michael Stuber, our Associate Treasurer, any Sunday in December, or by phone at 510-390-7889.

Special Offerings Every First Sunday

On the first Sunday of every month we invite you to participate in two special offerings at Eden. You may be familiar with the dry goods collection for the Family Emergency Shelter Coalition located in front of the niche; a list of the materials needed is always located in the church office. You may not be as familiar with the Deacon's offering envelopes that are found in your worship bulletin. This offering is a special collection used to help members and friends in need at the discretion of Pastor Arlene. It is our practice to never give out cash but we will share gift cards to local restaurants, buy gas for families struggling to reach a shelter, and even provide a night of shelter in a local motel if all local resources are exhausted. Your contributions to these offerings, FESCO and Deacon's fund, support the many ways that we show our care for the community.

Eden Church Campus Holiday Schedule

The Eden Church campus will be closed on the following days in observance of the Christmas and New Year's holidays: Saturday and Monday, Dec. 25 and 27, 2010, and Saturday and Monday, Jan. 1 and 3, 2011. The church office will also be closed on Monday, Jan. 17, 2011, in accordance with our nation's observance of the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Sunday, January 2, 2011: Taizé Worship for the New Year

Come experience the songs, silence, and prayers of Taizé Community Worship at Eden Church on Sunday, Jan. 2. The Taizé Community is an ecumenical monastic community in Eastern France that is a place of pilgrimage for those seeking the meaning of life in communion with Christ and other Christians—both Catholic and Protestant—around the world, through both prayer and service. The Taizé Community is renowned for a form of worship practiced three times each day that features repetitive singing (or chanting), music, and periods of meditative silence. Eden's Taizé worship will be patterned on the Taizé model. It will be a quiet service, with seating around and near the communion table in the front of the sanctuary. There will be scripture reading, prayer, and meditative silence in lieu of a sermon. Music will be provided by a quartet of singers and a quartet of recorder players, led by Eden's own Cindy Keune. Worship will be followed by coffee hour fellowship in Oliver Hall as usual. Come and greet the New Year, Taizé-style. If you have questions, please see Pepper Swanson or Brenda Loreman.

Chimes is a semi-monthly publication of Eden United Church of Christ. Proposed submissions should be sent to kathy@denucc.com, or mailed or delivered to the church, by the first and third Sundays of each month. We reserve the right to edit all materials submitted.
 Publisher: the Rev. Dr. Arlene K. Nehring, Senior Minister.

Two Opportunities to Celebrate Three Kings Day

Three Kings Day (also known as Epiphany) falls twelve days after Christmas each year on Jan. 6. This year Eden offers two different ways to celebrate the culmination of Christmas and the visitation of the magi at the nativity. Attend one or both as you are able. Descriptions follow:

• Eden-COR Celebrates "Three Kings Day a la Mexicano:"

Members and friends of Eden Church, Eden-Cherryland COR, and the Cherryland Community Association are invited Saturday, Jan. 8, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. to celebrate the visitation of the Magi, in traditional Mexican style. Adults and teens will prepare and serve lunch, including Pozole, chips and salsa, and rosca de reyes (three kings ring). Games will be offered for the children. Pedro Ramos-Goycolea will play his guitar and lead folk singing after lunch. A few rounds of lottoria (animal bingo) will follow. Our celebration will conclude with a piñata for the children. This event is sponsored by Eden's Spirit-in-Action Team, so there is no ticket price; but the planners need to know how many to cook for. Please register at the church office. To get involved in planning, please speak with Pam Winthers, Drew Nettinga, or Arlene Nehring.

• January Potluck & Three Kings Day Celebration:

After the holidays come to Eden to kick start the New Year with our first potluck in 2011 on Sunday, Jan. 9. Lunch will be followed by a time of church "un-decorating" where we will store all our holiday wears for next year. Please bring a salad or main dish to share. Beverages and dessert will be provided by the Fellowship Committee. Contact Liz Jobst for more information. In celebration of Epiphany, our children will burst open a piñata, after they've eaten their lunch.

Middle School Students— Beat the Winter Blues by Going to Camp

Middle School students, add camp to your Christmas wish list. Registration forms are already available from the Conference Office for Mid-Winter Camp at Camp Tuolumne Trails. Sponsored by the UCC Northern California Nevada Conference (NCNC), camp will be held from Saturday, Jan. 15, 2011, at 1 p.m., to Monday, Jan. 17, 2011, at 11 a.m. Camp cost is $175 if you're registered by Jan. 3. Scholarship money is available by talking to Pastor Arlene. For more information about camp, contact Liz Jobst, liz@edenucc.com, or visit the Eden UCC Facebook page for a link to the registration forms.

2011 Performing Arts Series Begins With Our Own Lee Steward and Loris Coburn

Presenting songs from Renaissance to modern day, Lee and Loris' benefit concert kicks off the new year on a good note! Come and support our musicians and our church on Sunday, Jan. 23, at 3 p.m., in the Sanctuary. Tickets are available in the church office and at coffee hour. All proceeds go to benefit the church. Bring a friend and enjoy the fun!

Valentine's Luncheon

The Fellowship Committee invites you and your friends to the annual Valentine's Luncheon on Friday, Feb. 11, at noon, in Oliver Hall. Tickets are $10 and will be available for purchase soon. Look for more information to come in upcoming bulletins.

Let's Do Coffee in 2011

The Fellowship Committee is looking for a few good volunteers each Sunday to help with Fellowship Coffee Hour. To help set up, clean up, or bring food (or all of the above!) any Sunday in January, February, or March, simply add your name to the sign-up sheet found on the wall by the parking lot door. See Carol Price or Lona Fryer with questions.

Seekers Holiday Break

The Seekers reading group will be on a holiday break until Wednesday, Jan 12, at 10 a.m. when the group will resume by discussing Chapter 4 in the book What's Right with Islam by Feisal Abdul Rauf. If you have any questions about the group or the vacation schedule please see Pat Ball or Liz Jobst.

The Gift of Flowers

The 2011 Flower Calendar is now available in the church office to sign up to donate flowers for worship. Flower donors buy and bring the flowers to the church; assistance is available for those who would like help in arranging the flowers. Flowers can be given in someone's honor or memory and can be listed in the bulletin. Please see Mary Burroughs if you have questions.

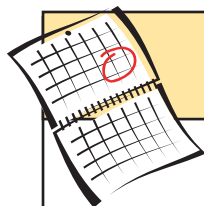

Speaking of flowers, Eden is looking for flower arrangers to take turns once a month (or less, as many donors prefer to bring flowers already arranged). Arrangers can come on Friday afternoons or Saturdays, and the vases are already available. If interested, contact Mary Burroughs at 581-5697.

SMALL GROUPS begin the first week of February
See Jenifer Miller or Mary Haro to sign up!

Prayer Practices with Mary Haro

Time: Mondays 7 p.m. – 9 p.m.

- Week 1 Introduction and Centering Prayer
- Week 2 Lectio Divina (Scripture)
- Week 3 Prayerful Movement
- Week 4 MUSIC and Poetry
- Week 5 Guided Meditation and JOURNALING
- Week 6 SUMMARY and Review

Independent Prayer Disciplines with Pepper Swanson

Time: Wednesdays 7 p.m. – 9 p.m.

Each participant will be asked to decide on a weekly set of disciplines that include at least three of the following:

- 1) Twenty minutes of daily prayer, meditation, contemplation, or silent stillness,
- 2) one day a week where you refrain from using a car,
- 3) one day a week where you go without one meal,
- 4) fifteen minutes of journal writing at least three times each week and/or
- 5) one day a week of genuine Sabbath.

This group will meet weekly to reflect on one's own practice, to strengthen one another, and to pray together. No special readings.

Writing Reflections with Liz Jobst

Time: Tuesdays 10 a.m. – noon
 Let your soul speak through the simple act of putting pen to paper. Whether you are just beginning your spiritual journey or are further down the path, in this small group we will use writing as a way to reflect on our experiences and help make meaning from our memories. Writing as art is accessible to all;

no prior experience with creative writing is necessary to join this group. This promises to be a fun and safe group where incomplete sentences are encouraged.

Social Justice Study Group: "Strangers in the Land" with Pedro Ramos-Goycolea and Rob Parrish

Time: Sundays noon – 2 p.m.

A six-week/series where we will delve into Strangers in the Land, a devotional guide on immigration, the church, and the Bible published by Sojourners. Sojourners is a Christian organization whose mission is to articulate the biblical call to social justice, inspiring home, and building a movement to transform individuals, communities, the church, and the world.

The Art of the Soul: Collage as Prayer with Jenifer Miller

Time: Fridays 10 a.m. – noon

In this 6 week series we will explore the art of collage to bring to light our innermost thoughts, feelings, prayers and concerns. We will use this art form as a tool for self-discovery, for meditation, and for learning the art of intentional manifestation. See how your soul reveals itself on paper as you piece together pictures, words and phrases from your favorite magazines. Bring your scissors, and come join the fun!

Joys

Eden Church is 145 years young.

A standing ovation to the Eden Church Choir, especially soloist Jessica House Steward, music director Lee Steward, and organist Loris Coburn, for an excellent offering of the Gloria on Dec. 5 in worship.

Many thanks to the Fellowship Committee for providing our community with yet another successful FESCO Christmas fundraising and friend-raising luncheon.

Thank you to the children, youth, and adults who planned, prepared for, and led our Christmas Pageant on Sunday, Dec. 12; and to everyone who contributed to the success of our "Happy Birthday, Jesus" Celebration, including the Spirit-in-Action Team, the Fellowship Committee, and their friends.

Thanks to all who participated and supported FESCO this holiday season. We raised over $1,700 in cash and gift card contributions from the luncheon and HBJ celebration, and gave several additional boxes of gifts.

Thank you to all who contributed to Eden's poinsettia and parament offering this past Advent season, and to all who helped order, arrange, and deliver poinsettias to our homebound members and friends. The new paraments will begin to grace our chancel over the coming months, and acknowledgments will be made in the Sunday worship bulletin at those times.

Santiago Ramos-Rosas, infant son of Pedro Ramos-Goycolea and Alejandra Rosas, is home from the hospital! Santiago was born Nov. 30, 2010. He weighed 7 pounds and was 20 inches long at birth.

Special thanks to the Palomares 4-H Club for bringing a barnyard full of animals to church for our live nativity on Dec. 19. Congratulations to the Eden Youth who produced Eden's first YouTube marketing video, "The Twelve O'clock News in Hayward," at the event.

Susan and Dennis Prestidge (and big sister, Danielle) welcomed Dean Raymond Prestidge into the world on Dec. 1, 2010. Dean weighed 9 pounds and was 20½ inches long at birth. Dean's grandparents are Sandra Nachand, and Peg and Dennis Prestidge.

Prayer Requests

For Todd Bove, who is in the midst of a job search.

For the family and friends of Beulah Brookes. Beulah died in Reno, Nevada, on Tuesday, Dec. 14, 2010. Memorial arrangements for services in Hayward are pending. Please call the church office for an update.

For Felicia Canty, Keith Smith's sister, who is recovering from surgery.

For Rindie Chase, who is undergoing chemotherapy. Rindie is a friend of the Payne family.

For Mary Graw, who is on the mend from knee replacement surgery.

For Diane Hurd, a close friend of the Smith-Bove family, who is living with a recurrence of ovarian cancer.

For the family of the Rev. Robert Iles, who died Monday, Dec. 20. The Rev. Iles is Roni Iles' father.

For Jane Kamps, mother of Mary Bradford, who has been diagnosed with uterine cancer, and who is exploring treatment options.

For the family of Josephson (Nanah) Mananandry as they mourn the loss of their father. Nanah is a close friend of Liz Jobst.

For Mary McElligott, who underwent surgery to treat cancer last week. Mary is the mother of Liz Jobst's stepmother, Susan McElligott.

For the family of Evelyn McKay, especially Liz McKay Jobst and John Jobst. Evelyn was Liz's paternal grandmother. She died peacefully Sunday, November 28, in Lewes, Delaware.

For Dennis Mills, who is recovering from his fourth heart attack.

For Rob Parrish, and his spouse, Launey Rivers. Rob is at Kaiser-Oakland recovering from injuries incurred in a motorcycle accident Dec. 16, and from two orthopedic surgeries related to the accident.

For Herb Ritter, a friend of Susan DuPree, whose father was diagnosed with advanced pancreatic cancer.

For the family of Mary Roth. Mary died on Dec. 18. Memorial arrangements are pending. Please contact the church office for an update.

For Beverly Schwains, who is dealing with some health challenges at this time.

For Mark Sidell, Liz Jobst's uncle, who is recovering from an appendectomy.

For Peter Stark, Sierra Stark's dad, who is recovering at home from a motorcycle accident.

For Dave Wallace, who is looking for full-time employment and developing a math tutoring business.

For Barbara Wallis, who is receiving hospice care at Baywood Court in Castro Valley. Cards, calls, and visits are welcome.

For those who are unemployed and underemployed, and experiencing the stresses of these challenging economic times.

For all who are affected by sexual and domestic violence.

For all who are in the armed services, for our missionaries and ministers around the globe, and for peace and justice in the world.

And for Carlton Alexander, Mary Bernstein, Juanita Chavez, Vera Dickie, Ann Dodd, Regina Fischer, Allen Gardiner, Clyde Howell, Wesley Moniz, and Angie Payne.
