OUR FAITH, OUR VOTE; OUR SCHOOLS, OUR FUTURE

One of the most important lessons that I learned about voting came from my high school government teacher, Mr. Cook. I remember him asking my senior class, "What is the most important election that you will participate in as an adult?"

Most of us (including me) surmised that a vote for President would be the most important ballot we would cast; but Mr. Cook disabused us of this idea, and argued instead that the most important ballot we would cast would be for school board trustees.

I was puzzled by Mr. Cook's assertion at first, but have come to understand how right he was. Mr. Cook explained that the fewest citizens vote for school board trustees, and yet, these trustees typically have the most influence on our daily lives.

School trustees define school policy and academic curriculum. They hire superintendents, negotiate union contracts, oversee building projects, and decide whether and when schools merge, split, reorganize, or close. If we are homeowners, school trustees influence whether school levies go on the ballot, and how taxes from these levies are spent. If we rent our homes, then the amount of taxes our landlord pays affects our monthly rent. If we are business owners, we depend deeply on the academic preparation that our employees receive in school. If we are raising children, school trustees' decisions have an even more profound effect on our lives, because they are partners with us in shaping our children's futures and the future of our community.

Flash forward 30 years from my high school government class to the midterm elections before us on November 2. Our public schools are being profoundly affected by the State budget crisis. Several local schools are in (or on the brink of) state-mandated improvement programs. Taxes are up and real estate values are down. To make matters worse, some school board meetings are so acrimonious that we don't have to wonder why conflict is an issue in so many of our schools. Could the importance of school board elections be any clearer? I think not. Mr. Cook was right.

Please plan to attend our candidates' forum, "Building Bridges," on Tuesday, October 26, beginning at 6:30 p.m. in Oliver Hall, and vote your conscience on Tuesday, November 2. Encourage others to educate themselves on the issues and candidates, and urge them to vote. If you drive, offer others rides to the polls, or deliver house-bound friends' ballots to the post office or polls.

Our children are counting on us. Their future—and ours—is inextricably bound-up in whether and how we vote on Election Day, and how we show up (or don't) at our schools.

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

November 2010

Welcome to Eden!

Eden is a diverse and growing church. At Eden, people of all ages and backgrounds join together to grow spiritually, do good in the world, and develop healing and nurturing relationships.

At our church, you will not be told what to believe. We feel that the way we treat one another is more important than holding uniform beliefs. And, while the Bible is important to our faith, it is not the last word. We believe that God is Still Speaking through science, nature, personal experience, other faith traditions and more.

On Sunday mornings, our church services and kids' programs are open, friendly and innovative. Every week at Eden, you'll find all kinds of activities—retreats, yoga classes, service projects, music programs, labyrinth walks, study groups—to nurture mind, body, and spirit.

At Eden, we are on a journey together to understand and live God's truth for our lives. Come and join us on the journey. Check out our website. Give us a call. Come by and see us. We look forward to welcoming you!

Blessing of the Animals

The second annual Blessing of the Animals and Pet Food Drive was held on Saturday, Oct. 16. Proud pet owners brought their furried, feathered, and scaly friends to be blessed by Pastor Arlene. We also collected pet food to support the Hayward Animal Shelter, and friends from the Sulphur Creek Nature Center gave an informational talk. Thanks to Stephanie Spencer, Michael Stuber, Rob Parrish, Shannon Whitney, and the entire welcoming team for organizing another successful E-vent.

Rev. Drew Nettinga

Four-Way Covenant Affirmed

Eden Church, the Bay Association, the Northern California Nevada Conference UCC, and the Rev. Drew Nettinga (a new member of Eden Church and our long-time Associate Conference Minister) recently entered into a four-way covenant.

The United Church of Christ (UCC), our parent denomination, advises that in instances where ordained ministers are called to non-parish employment, a covenantal relationship be established among the clergyperson, his or her local church, the calling body, the association, and the conference.

In recent years, Drew held his church membership with the San Lorenzo Community Church UCC, where he was their part-time pastor, while he also served on the association and conference staff. When Drew retired from the San Lorenzo church it became necessary for him to establish church membership elsewhere and to pursue a new four-way covenant with us.

As part of his covenant with Eden Church, Drew will receive support and encouragement for his ministry from our congregation, be invited to teach and participate in worship leadership from time to time, and to offer emergency pastoral care to the congregation when Pastor Arlene is out of town.

We are grateful that Drew has accepted Arlene's invitation to serve as a leader in our LOC, Eden-Cherryland COR, and to chair the Teaching Parish Committee for Pedro Ramos-Goycolea. We are delighted to welcome Drew and his spouse, Susan, to Eden Church.

HUSD Board of Education Candidate's Forum

Eden-Cherryland COR will host a forum on Tues., Oct. 26, in Oliver Hall called "Building Bridges In A Diverse Community." The forum will feature candidates seeking election to the Hayward Unified School District's Board of Education, and other leaders engaged in youth services in our community. Hayward voters are especially encouraged to attend. Childcare will be provided. Please email or phone in your childcare needs to Kathy Miller at the church office.

Eden-Cherryland COR is a ministry of Eden United Church of Christ and is part of Congregations Organizing for Renewal. Incorporated in 1996, Congregations Organizing for Renewal (COR) is a faith-based, grass roots organization of 11 congregations, schools, and neighborhood groups, representing 25,000 families in South Alameda County.

Interfaith Worship Celebrates Welcome to LGBT Communities

Witness Our Welcome, the Ninth Annual Interfaith Worship Celebration, will be held on Sat., Oct. 30, beginning at 4 p.m. at the Danville Congregational Church UCC, 989 San Ramon Valley Blvd., in Danville. Featured speakers will include Rabbi Dan Goldblatt of Beth Chaim, the Rev. Roland Stringfellow of the Center for Gay & Lesbian Studies, and Jack Fertig from the Muslim Community. See Pam and Ed Reuling to join the Eden UCC delegation who will represent our congregation at this interfaith celebration.

Chimes is a semi-monthly publication of Eden United Church of Christ. Proposed submissions should be sent to kathy@denucc.com, or mailed or delivered to the church, by the first and third Sundays of each month. Program at McGilvary College of Divinity, Payap University in Chiang Mai, Thailand, will be our special guest on Sunday, Oct. 31, and will speak about our UCC mission partnerships with the Church of Christ in Thailand. Natives of the Philippines, Buddy and his spouse, Norma, have lived and served in Thailand for nearly two decades, where he has taught at the university. They have also volunteered with the Church of Christ in Thailand's ministries with persons with AIDS, and refugees from Burma. Buddy will be introduced during worship, and present an overview of our mission partnership in Thailand, from 11:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m. in the Norberg Room.

Monthly Labyrinth Walks to Nurture Your Spirit

Eden Church will continue our monthly guided labyrinth walk on Friday, Nov. 5, at 7 p.m. Rain or shine, this will be an opportunity to nurture yourself amidst the caring for, cooking for, and sharing your gifts with others. Come experience our beautiful labyrinth as a tool for releasing stress and replenishing your spirit. Use the labyrinth as a path to awareness that can help you move beyond your thought patterns and processes. A peaceful walk in the labyrinth can help you reconnect with the sacred essence that resides within. Join others and journey into the depths of your heart, and into the vast pool of your very own stillness. The wisdom of your soul awaits you. See Mary Haro or Jenifer Miller with questions.

And when you tire of shopping, enjoy a scrumptious lunch from Café Eden. Make plans today to bring your "friend raisins" from the UCC Friend Raising event to this important church fundraiser.
